SHEILA LYNN LARSON SCHOLARSHIP

VISION & PURPOSE

Sheila Lynn Larson was a consummate helpmeet, mother and friend. Some of her favorite things were music, travel, crocheting, skiing, snowmobiling, and spoiling grandkids. She and her husband, Allen, had their own cabinet making business, and Sheila was proficient with operating machinery and assembling cabinets.

Allen and Sheila were devoted Seventh-day Adventists and they educated their children in Adventist schools. Then, in 2013 Sheila was diagnosed with dementia and in 2014 with Lou Gehrig's Disease. Over the next couple of years her health declined, and the final year of her life she needed total care. Following her death, Allen was looking for a way to memorialize his beloved wife, and decided to establish a scholarship fund with FoundationONE. The Sheila Lynn Larson Scholarship is for UCA students who are interested in some of the things Sheila enjoyed most—music, home economics, and industrial arts.
