

FAYE R. KWAPIEN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

VISION & PURPOSE

Faye R. (Prewitt) Kwapien, '51, never got to graduate with her UCA class. It was not due to a lack of appreciation, however. In fact, she loved Upper Columbia Academy (UCA). But, her father had just passed away, and her mother was struggling to pay the medical bills and keep food on the table for her nine children. So, Faye decided the best way to help the family was to quit school and get a job.

Despite her own financial challenges, Faye found a way to send her four children to UCA. Her whole life she believed in the life-changing nature of Christian education. Because of this, her husband, Ted, after her death in May 2014, decided to establish a Named Scholarship Fund to assist students with obtaining a Christian education at UCA.
